When you give, kids gain.

Help a child learn. Get every dollar back.

The new federal scholarship tax credit starts January 1, 2027.

It costs you nothing.

You give up to	$1,700
− Your tax credit	$1,700
= Your cost	$0

Any amount works the same way. Give $500, get $500 back. You get back up to what you owe in federal income tax. Married couples can give up to $3,400.

How it works.

1. You give
   Any amount up to $1,700. Choose "Federal tax credit."
2. You get it back
   Claim the credit on your federal return for the year you gave.
3. Families apply
   K-12 families apply for need-based scholarships.
4. A child goes to school
   Scholarships are paid directly to schools.
